

★ Infant & Toddler News ★

Week of 12-4-2023

“Ah the magic of music, with it, all things are possible.”

- E. A. Bucchianeri

A Special Visit with Santa

Exploring the Spiral Wheel

Standard: Children attempt a variety of strategies to accomplish tasks, overcome obstacles, and find solutions to tasks, questions and challenges.

Tummy Time

Building with Letter Blocks

Looking Out at Our Playground and Feeling the Cold Window! Winter Time is Here!

Pretend Play and Using our Imaginations!

Standard: Children demonstrate interest and eagerness in learning about their world.

Enjoying Our Snacks

Putting on Shoes

Sharing Books

Exploring More Books

Standard: Children demonstrate interest in and comprehension of printed materials.

Making Wrapping Paper for Our Gifts

Enjoying a Wonderful Christmas Concert in the Gym

Sharing Songs and Playing Our Gathering Drum

Looking Ahead

December 15, Fri.—Last Day of Our Semester

January 16, Tues.—Classes Begin

February 12, Mon.—Lincoln's Birthday—No Classes

March 11-15, Mon.-Fri—Spring Break

Local Holiday Happenings

December 10, Sunday— 3:00 pm Holiday Brass Concert Series, First Presbyterian Church

December 16, Saturday— 8:30-12:00, Winter Farmer's Market, American Legion, 221 East Washington Street, Macomb

Reminders

Please remember that next week will be our last week of the semester. Please be certain to take home all bedding before we depart for break.