

BULLETIN BOARD USE

Malpass Library has one public bulletin board, located on the first level by the public elevators.

- The bulletin board may be used for university and community event announcements, meeting notices, and organizational information.
- All material must be approved by the University Libraries Administration Office. Items not approved will be removed and discarded. Items posted elsewhere in Malpass Library will also be removed.
- Postings will be regularly monitored and removed.
- Questions should be directed to the Library Administration Office.
